I mí Iúil na bliana seo caite, tháinig na sluaite amach ar an Fhál Charrach, in iarthuaisceart Dhún na nGall don chéad fhéile Bród na Gaeltachta, féile a mhair seachtain agus a thug deis do dhaoine freastal ar réimse iontach imeachtaí agus an mórshiúl mór é féin. Ba mhór an t-ábhar bróid dúinn an fhéile, ach go háirithe an tacaíocht a thug pobail Chloich Cheann Fhaola, Tír Chonaill agus ár gcairde Gaeil as thart ar an tír agus i gcéin do Bhród na Gaeltachta, rud a léirigh cé chomh fáilteach is atá ár gceantar agus a bhí ina cheiliúradh iontach ar an phobal LADTAIÉ+ a d'fhás aníos sa cheantar nó a mhaireann ann anois. Tugann Bród na Gaeltachta deis dúinn uilig ceiliúradh a dhéanamh ar an ilchineálacht atá inár bpobail, lámh chairdis agus cineálta a shíneadh amach don phobal LADTAIÉ+ agus ardán a thabhairt do ghuthanna, ealaín agus saothar an pobal LADTAIÉ+ inár gceantar, béim i gcónaí ar ár gcairde chomh maith lenar baill LADTAIÉ+ féin.

Mar sin, ardaíonn sé ár gcroíthe go mbeidh Bród na Gaeltachta ar ais I mbliana ón 16-23 Iúil ar an bhFál Carrach agus an ceantar thart ar an mbaile, agus réimse dochreidte imeachtaí againn daoibh, le ceol, amharclannaíocht, cainteanna, siúlóidí, spórt, scannánaíocht, filíocht agus go leor eile, chomh maith leis an mórshiúl é féin ar an Satharn 22 Iúil. Tá fáilte roimh chách sa pharóiste, agus tugaimid cuireadh dár gcairde as taobh amuigh den pharóiste bheith linn don fhéile chomh maith, bíodh sibh ag cur fúibh in Éirinn nó níos faide amach ná sin.

Bígí linn!

In the month of July last year, crowds descended on Falcarragh, in northwest Donegal for the first Bród na Gaeltachta festival, which lasted for one week and gave people the opportunity to attend an amazing range of events and the big parade itself.

It was a huge source of pride for us, especially considering the support given to us in Cloich Cheann Fhaola, Donegal and our friends around the world and abroad, something which illustrated how welcoming our community is, and which was a lovely celebration of the LGBTQIA+ community who grew up here or live here currently. Bród na Gaeltachta gives us an opportunity to celebrate the diversity in our community, to extend a hand of friendship and kindness to our LGBTQIA+ friends and to give a platform to LGBTQIA+ voices, art and work in the community, with an emphasis always on allies as well as our own LGBTQIA+ members.

With that said, it warms our hearts that Bród na Gaeltachta will return this year from 16-23 July in Falcarragh and the surrounding area, with an extraordinary range of events taking place, including music, theatre, talks, walking tours, sport, film and much more, as well as the parade on Saturday 22 July. We welcome everyone in the parish and surrounding area, and we invite our friends from further afield to join us as well, from near and far.

Bígí linn!

Is cuimhin liom ag fás aníos i nGaeltacht Tír Chonaill, agus ní raibh oscailteacht ann i ndairíre faoi cúrsaí gnéasacht agus inscne. Ní raibh an méid tuiscint ann faoi na rudaí seo is atá ann inniu. Mhothaigh daoine LADT+ brú a bhféiniúlacht a choinneáil faoi rún chun iad féin a chosaint. Is cuimhin liom an reifreann do chomhionnas pósadh, agus na postaeir 'Cosain an chlann' thart an cheantar, na h-argóintí ar scoil agus ar an dteilifís. Ag an am, ní raibh mé dóchasach. Ach ansin, vótáil muid tá. Bhí fíor-bhród agam as mo phobail. Bhí sé soléir domsa mar dhéagóir, in aghaidh gach cosúlachta, ba hiad grá agus tuiscint na dearcanna is coitianta sa Ghaeltacht I 2015, agus is féidir na dearcanna sin a fheiceáil faoi lánseol inniu i 2023. Is onóir den chéad scoth é domsa a bheith páirteach i mBród na Gaeltachta mar cheoltóir agus mar ambasadóir. Creidim sa phobail anseo, creidim sa teanga, agus creidim i gach duine óg a gheobhaidh an muinín a bheith iad féin ó ocáidí mar seo. Go n-éirí libh.

These workshops will be a blend of Béarla agus Gaeilge. An raibh a fhios agat go raibh caisearbháin éighnéasach? Nó go mbíonn colúir i gcaidrimh aeracha? Nó go n-athraíonn crainn ó ghnéas amháin go gnéas eile ag bráth ar na séasúir ag athrú. Tá aiteachais timpeall orainn sa nádúr, fianaise ar éagsúlacht na saolta thart orainn, éagsúlacht a mhair agus a d'fhorbair leis na billiúin bliain. Is féidir ceardlann amháin a dhéanamh nó é a dhéanamh mar shraith de thrí cheardlann. Is imscrúdú comhoibríoch é seo ar aiteachas sa domhan nádúrtha. Bígí linn - tá tú aiteach go leor!
Did you know that dandelions are asexual? That pigeons will form gay partnerships? Or that some trees can change gender from one season to the next? Queerness in nature is all around us, reminding us of the multiplicities of life that have appeared, adapted and thrived over billions of years.
Can be taken as stand alone workshops or as a series of three. This is a collaborative enquiry into how queerness is reflected back to us from the natural world. Yes, you are queer enough to join!

Le linn na ceardlainne beifear ag plé an dóigh a gcuirtear tús leis an dán, cá dtagann sé as agus cad mar a dhéanfar an chéad dréacht a leagan síos ar pháipéar.
Bainfear úsáid as cleachtaí ceardlainne ar nós leideanna don scríbhneoireacht chruthaitheach, filí aitheanta ag léamh agus ag déanamh anailíse ar a gcuid filíochta, agus plé sa ghrúpa.
